David Marsh Performance at Kearney Public Library

Musician, David Marsh will be performing at Kearney Public Library on Tuesday, August 1 at 6:30pm. With over a dozen instruments and stories about each, David entertains with music from around the world. This multi-cultural program is a musical expose of the influence that immigrants from around the world have had on our American culture. Audiences learn about the creativity of the “folk” who developed the instruments and musical styles, the role music has played in traditional cultures and the musical influences various cultures have had on one another in America. The program is free to the public and suitable for ages 6 – 100. Humanities Nebraska provides major funding for this program. HN receives support from the National Endowment for the Humanities, the Nebraska State Legislature, the Nebraska Cultural Endowment, and generous donors.
