Kearney Man Arrested on Felony Warrant

On Tuesday, August 26, 2025, at approximately 8:45 a.m., members of the joint Kearney Police Department/Buffalo County Sheriff's Office Emergency Service Unit (ESU) served an arrest warrant at a residence in the East Lawn Mobile Home Park neighborhood, located at 2900 Grand Avenue.

The Buffalo County warrant was issued for a 30-year-old Kearney man on charges of two counts of Felony Child Abuse, one count of Felony Strangulation, one count of Felony Terroristic Threats and one count of Felony Intentional Cruelty to an Animal.

Due to the nature of the investigation and charges, the ESU team was utilized to ensure the safety of officers, residents, and the surrounding community. The arrest was made without incident, and the suspect was taken into custody.

The Kearney Police Department and Buffalo County Sheriff's Office would like to thank the Kearney Volunteer Fire Department, CHI Good Samaritan Emergency Medical Services and Nebraska State Patrol for their assistance and commitment to keeping our community safe.
