Structure fire claims life of Kearney man

On Sunday, September 14, 2025, at approximately 11:00 p.m., Kearney Police Officers, members of the Kearney Volunteer Fire Department, and CHI Good Samaritan Hospital Paramedics responded to a structure fire at 3706 Avenue M.

Upon arrival, responders learned that two of the three residents were able to escape the home safely. Tragically, one resident, a 69-year-old male was found deceased inside the residence.

The cause of the fire remains under investigation by the Nebraska State Fire Marshal's Office.

The Kearney Police Department and Kearney Volunteer Fire Department extend our deepest condolences to the family and friends of the deceased during this difficult time.
