Kearney Works Assistance at Kearney Public Library

Kearney Works is a non-profit organization that helps the unemployed and underemployed residents of Buffalo County improve their labor skills and guides them through the process of finding better, high-paying jobs in the area. In addition to their Kearney office location at 16 West 11th Street, Kearney Works will be providing free assistance at the Kearney Public Library each Monday afternoon from 1:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m., beginning in October, on a first-come, first-served basis. For questions please call Kearney Works at 308-865-1354 or the Kearney Public Library at 308-233-3256.
