Legal Forms Database Class at Kearney Public Library

A brief class on how to access and use the Legal Forms and Legal Information Reference Center databases will be held Wednesday, March 28 at 10:00 a.m. in the library's Technology Learning Center classroom on the lower level. The Kearney Public Library's two legal information databases offer extensive collections of free legal forms including federal, state-specific, real estate, personal, and general forms covering hundreds of legal subjects and issues. Also included is the full text of the most popular legal publications. Both databases are freely accessible to anyone with an internet connection and their KPL card number. Class size is limited to 15. Basic computer skills and pre-registration are required. Register via the library's website at www.kearneylib.org or by calling 308-233-3256.
