The Vanishing Indian: Native Americans in Cather's World with Tracy Tucker

Kearney Public Library invites you to The Vanishing Indian: Grave-Robbing, Relic-Hunting and Native Americans in Cather's World presented by Tracy Tucker, Education Director at The Willa Cather Foundation. She will present two sessions on Thursday, February 7 at noon (12:00 p.m.) and 7:00 p.m. Tucker will present her research about Native Americans in Webster County and what Cather knew of them, and why she chose not to portray them in her novels. This presentation is part of several local Cather related programs in February.

This program is free and open to the public so join us to learn more about Nebraska author, Willa Cather. The library is located at 2020 First Avenue, Kearney, NE.
