Beki Hemingway in Concert at Kearney Public Library

Join us on Thursday, June 27, at 7:00 p.m. for an evening of music with Beki Hemingway and Randy Kerkman, her husband/guitarist/co-writer. Their latest album, Whins and Weather, covers a lot of ground – Americana, gospel, folk, and even a bit of old-fashioned pop – woven together seamlessly in this, Beki's sixth release.

Based in County Wexford, Ireland, with stops in Chicago, Nashville, and Denver along the way, it has been said that Beki writes and sings some of the "best songs you've never heard."

Please call Kearney Public Library at 308-233-3282 for more information. No registration is required. Recommended for audiences ages 16+. The library is located at 2020 1st Avenue.
