The Noiseguy performs at Kearney Public Library

It's a day of wacky and out-of-this-world sounds, as Charlie "the Noiseguy" Williams visits the Kearney Public Library on Monday, July 22 at 10:30 a.m., presenting his Lunar Tunes program. Williams is a comedian, illustrator, author and vocal sound impressionist who uses amazing vocal imitations that will leave you in stitches. Learn about the effects the moon has on the Earth. There will be Star Wars noises! Learn about the phases of the moon! This is an educational and hilarious show like none other, you won't believe your ears! Parents - be prepared for a lot of giggling. All ages are welcome.
