Issued Date: April 6, 2020

Point of Contact: Bryan D. Waugh, Chief of Police, (308) 233-5265

Online Incident Reporting for Citizens

<https://p2c.kearneygov.org> Click on Report Incident

Citizen's in Kearney and Buffalo County now have the ability to file a police report online for certain incidents. This new service does not replace 911 for emergencies or if you need to report a crime in progress.

This online service is for reporting non-emergency incidents that occurred within the jurisdictional limits of Buffalo County to include cities of Kearney, Gibbon, Pleasanton, Elm Creek, Amherst, Riverdale, Odessa and Miller. Reports taken on this website include, but may not be limited to, the following types of incidents:

- Trespassing
- Littering/Dumping
- Telephone Offense
- Code Violation
- Suspicious Activity
- Lost Property

Reports submitted via online must meet the following conditions:

- Must have occurred in the jurisdictional limits of Buffalo County, Nebraska.
- There must NOT be any suspect information at all.
- There must be NO evidence to process.
- The crime being reported must NOT be in progress.
- The crime being reported CANNOT be a violent crime.

Each report will be reviewed to ensure that it meets the minimum requirements. You may be contacted for additional information, and you will be notified by email of the case number once the report is completed and approved or rejected.

Please allow up to 3 business days for a status update to your electronic report. Should you have any questions, please contact the Kearney Police Department Records Division during normal business hours (Monday thru Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.) at 308-233-5250.

It is illegal in the State of Nebraska to falsely or fraudulently report a crime (Nebraska Revised State Statute 28-907, False Reporting). Violators will be arrested.
