Kearney Public Library Offers Virtual Crane River Theater Program to Patrons

Let's dance, sing, and play with Crane River Theater this summer! Kearney Public Library is so excited to include Crane River's Page to Stage Video program along with all of our other online Summer Programming. From the comfort of your own home, you can follow along as Crane River Theater brings a story to life directly from the text of a book! During this hour-long program you will learn songs, play games, and dance along with the energetic cast of Crane River's Page to Stage School House Rock program! Program ends on June 30. Register at www.kearneylib.org under the events tab or contact the youth desk at 308-233-3284.
