One Author Kearney Presents An Evening with Anne Hillerman

The Kearney Public Library Foundation and Kearney Public Library welcome award-winning author Anne Hillerman to Kearney for the 7th/8th Annual One Author Kearney event on Friday, October 15 at 7:00 pm. The evening event will be at the World Theatre located at 2318 Central Ave. Free tickets are required and are available at the library or by calling 308-233-3282. Limit four tickets per person. At the request of our guest author and the World Theatre masks will be required.

Santa Fe author Anne Hillerman continues the popular mystery series her father, Tony Hillerman, created beginning in 1970, but with her own voice. Anne's debut novel, "Spider Woman's Daughter," received the prestigious Spur Award for Best First Novel. Five mysteries followed, each a New York Times best-seller. Before turning to fiction, Anne published several non-fiction books and worked for many years as a reporter and editor. She recently received the Frank Waters Award for contributions to the literature of the Southwest. Her newest book, "Stargazer" was released in 2021.

Books will be available for purchase in partnership with The Sequel bookstore with a portion of the proceeds going to support the Kearney Public Library Foundation. A book signing will follow the program.
