Updated Road Closure - 31st Street from Avenue G to Avenue K

The City of Kearney Public Works Department and Dan Roeder Concrete announce that beginning Thursday, July 28, 2022, the closure of 31st Street will extend from Avenue G to Avenue K for construction, weather permitting. Access to properties will be made through alleyways or side streets. Work will include total roadway removal/replacement, water main and sanitary improvements. The work is anticipated to last through approximately mid-October.

Additionally, the Public Works Department announces that 31st Street from Avenue L to Avenue N has been reopened.

Citizens driving in the area are urged to use extreme caution while repairs are being made.
