Priority Traffic Enforcement Areas (PTEA)

The Kearney Police Department would like to inform citizens of the Priority Traffic Enforcement Areas (PTEA) for August (see attached map below):

Priority Traffic Enforcement Areas for August are:

- |                                          |                             |
|------------------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1) West 24th Street (Hwy 30)/30th Avenue | Times 7:00 a.m. - 9:00 a.m. |
| 2) 56th Street/N Avenue                  | Times 7:00 a.m. - 9:00 a.m. |
| 3) 8th Street/2nd Avenue                 | Times 7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. |

There three objectives of the PTEA program are:

- 1) Educate citizens of lawful and safe driving habits through traditional and social media.
- 2) Gain voluntary compliance from the public, through aggressive traffic statute enforcement practices that are specific to locate, time and type of violation.
- 3) Reduce the number of vehicle collisions at high traffic volume intersections and roadways.

The criteria will for determining these locations will be based on:

- Accidents and causes
- Traffic Congestion
- Public Complaints – Please Use Access Kearney to report
- City Complaints
- Manpower
- Calls for Service Load
- Officer/Supervisor Observations and Recommendations

While officers may enforce any observed violations, the targeted violations will be traffic signal violation, failure to yield violations for turning vehicles and for pedestrians in cross walks, speed enforcement, improper wide turns, and other observed traffic violations.
