Author Tosca Lee Presents at the Kearney Public Library

Kearney Public Library is excited to host Nebraska author Tosca Lee for two fun events! She is the New York Times bestselling author of eleven novels including The Line Between, A Single Light, The Progeny, The Legend of Sheba, and Iscariot. Her work has been translated into seventeen languages and optioned for TV and film. She is best known for her nuanced prose, unexpected points of view, meticulous research, and high-octane thrills. Tosca lives with her husband, Bryan, and two of four children still at home in Nebraska. She received her B.A. in English and International Relations from Smith College with special studies at Oxford University. To learn more about Tosca, please visit www.toscalee.com.

On Monday, April 25, Tosca will present a writing workshop, "Secrets of a Bestseller," from 12:00 - 2:00 p.m. for aspiring writers and fans of her work. This is an opportunity to gain insights and learn more about her writing process. Limited to 25 participants aged 18 and up with registration required. This workshop has a $15 fee with lunch included.

Tosca is also the featured speaker for the annual Book Club Festival at 6:30pm that evening. Registration is required. You do not have to be a member of a book club to attend. Books will be available for purchase at the event from the Sequel Bookshop.
